EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In the Specifications, line 1, after "This application", insert --is a continuation of 10/232,728 now U.S Patent 6,720,894 which-- Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Robert Sokohl on 01/03/2008.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to teach a computer system and method, the system including a decompression engine that performs the following steps: receiving a code word, the codeword including a header and one or more bit streams; identifies one or more addresses of a memory device for one or more particular words based upon the one or more bit streams; retrieves one or more particular words from the memory device based upon the one or more addresses; and, calculated the decompressed data word from the one or more particular words.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Citation of Relevant Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

Wilson et al teach a method and system for performing differential lossless compression.
